THE DEL MONTE FIRE.

Total Destruction of the Magnificent Ho-

As stated in a telegram to the RECORD-

Union of Saturday, received at 2:30 A. M.

on that morning, the beautiful Hotel Del

Monte, situated on the picturesque bay of Monterey, was burned about midnight on friday. Within an hour from the time the fire started the magnificent structure was burned to the ground. Fortunately the large number of guests escaped with their lives, although many lost all their clothing and valuables, amounting, in many individual cases, to thousands of dollars. Various accounts are given of the progress of the fire and of the many scenes connected with hairbreadth escapes, etc.; but the following, from the Call's report, contains a pretty accurate account of the catastrophe in a few words:

J. C. MARSHALL'S STATEMENT.
J. C. Marshall, of Philadelphia, in relating his experience, said that he was the only guest about the house who had not discovered the smoke in the hallway at a quarter past 11 o'clock and gave the alarm to the night clerk. Other employes were awakened and a search for the fire was made, but no alarm was given, as it was supposed to be only a chimney blaze. Soon the fire was located in the basement near the barber shop and water closets, and in a few minutes flames shot forth from several places widely apart. The alarm was at once given and a scene of turnoil that beggared description followed as the terrified inmates rushed from the burning building in undress. There were about 350 guests and over 100 servants in the hotel, when everybody was out an attempt was made to save the building, but it was soon manifest that that was impossible, and the efforts of the employes and such of the guests as chose to belot the more of the guests as chose to help them were directed to saving some of the furniture, and nearly everything in the annex was gotten out. As many of the guests had scarcely any clothing, blankets and coverlets were distributed among them, and they were made as com-fortable as possible. A great number of rough-looking natives soon appeared upon the scene and began to carry off bed-clothes, trunks, or whatever else came handy, no one attempting to prevent them, and many of the guests who got their things out were chagrined to find that had been carried off by these plunderers. As soon as the excitement had subsided a little, the clubhouse and railroad station were opened and the shivering people crowded in. A train of cars was also gotten in and there a number also took refuge, so that no one actually suffered, the night not being really cold. But there was not much sleeping done by any one. The disconselete ing done by any one. The disconsolate crowd were fed in the stables, and then a

THE MANAGER'S OPINION.

Superintendent Basset received a dispatch as follows from the scene of the disaster:

as follows from the scene of the disaster:

MONTEREY, April 2, 1887.

A. C. Bassett: Mr. Schoenwald thinks that the fire was set, as it started under the floor of the lobby, where there was nothing for a fire to originate itself. The first warning was received at 11:45 P. M., when the fire broke through the floor, and in a few minutes the main part of the building was filled with smoke. We only had time to arouse the guests, many of whom barely got out of the building in their night clothes. We saved considerable of the furniture from the new addition. There was no pressure to the water and we could not force the stream to the celling of the first floor.

Line, had gone ashore in the breakers off Scituate, some six miles from Minott's Light, just before dusk. It is also reported that at the time of the disaster a blinding show-storm was prevailing, accompanied by a terrific gale, and that the sea was simply wild with fury. The Scythia has over 800 souls on board, including passengers and crew, and a great loss of life is reported.

> Boston, April 3d—2:15 A. M.—A train has been sent out by the Old Colony road for the point nearest Scituate, where the steamer Scythia is ashore, A number of reporters have gone on this train, but particulars are not likely to be received before morning. Up to this hour no additional acts have reached here, although every effort has been made to secure some ad ditional details. The first and only infor-mation of the disaster was brought to the city by the last train from Scituate. THE REPORTERS FIND NO WRECK.

Boston, April 3d.—The startling rumor of a disaster on the coast at Scituate to the Cunard steamer Scythia, the circulation of which created a tremendous sensation in which created a tremendous sensation in this city last night, has been proven to be false. Owing to the fact that telegraphic communication with the south shore had been interrupted by the storm, it was impossible last night either to confirm the rumor or to disprove it. The circumstances were so peculiarly favorable to a belief in the truth of the report, however, that Agent Martin, of the Cunard Company, rather than endure the suspense, determined to charter a special pense, determined to charter a special train and go at once to the locality of the alleged wreck. The train left the Old Colony station at 3:15 A. M. with Mr. Mar-tin and thirty reporters on board, and ar-rived at Scituate at 4:15. Then the party TRAMPED THROUGH THREE MILES OF SNOV

How the rumor originated is not known, but there is no doubt it was generally believed to be true last night. The Scythia was expected to arrive yesterday, and this act, taken in connection with the terrible gale that had been prevailing on the coast for forty-eight hours, caused a widespread feeling of apprehension.

THE BLEAK ATLANTIC. Terrific Snow-storm and Gale in New England-Great Damage. Boston, April 3d .- At an early hour on Friday night a violent snow-storm set in tween Alameda and Oakland seemed a difficult problem. But already one-third of very generally throughout New England, accompanied, particularly along the coast, by a heavy gale. Reports from Gloucester, Provincetown, and other prominent parts, indicate the storm as being the most severe for many years, if not altogether without precedent. For thirty-six hours the wind maintained a velocity of 60 to 80 miles an hour. From eight inches to a foot and a half of snow has fallen. Many reports have been received of damage to buildings. have been received of damage to buildings and trees from the weight of the snow. At Block Island the gale was simply terrible. The beach is strewn with wreckage from the schooner Pathfinder, which went ashore at the breakwater. The Old Colony boat could not leave Fall River for New York because of the terrific sea outfrom the shore. The harbor is full of vessels, but no reports of disasters have

The steamer Katahdid, from Berton to Bangor, with 120 passengers, put in at Portsmouth harbor and landed her pas-sengers at New Castle. The sea was so errific that her officers were convinced hat she would never reach her destination. At Newport the gale was also terrific, and rips of boats were suspended.

In Boston the streets are filled up with snow, and street car traffic is retarded while on all the railroads throughout New England trains are very much delayed.

Advices from Sandwich and Chatham Advices from Sandwich and Chatham state that the storm along the coast was the most severe by far for ten years. Telegraph and telephone communication with the shore is completely cut off, the wires being prostrated by the heavy gales. The wind has blown terribly all day from the northeast, and shows no signs of abating. Its force is so great that it is almost impossible for pedestrians to be about. The Great Trotter Lowers His Recor to 2:13 1-2.
[San Francisco Call.]
At the Bay District Track, on Saturday, before the 2:18-class trot had begun Frank Van Ness appeared upon the track holding the ribbons over Harry Wilkes. His appearance was the signal for much applause The horse moved around the track with that easy, graceful stride which, when once seen in all its perfection, never is forgotten In the mean time the betting on the prob

In the mean time the betting on the probable result of his attempt was going on briskly at the pool-boxes. Odds were freely offered on "time" and against Wilkes at rates of $50 to $15. Those who had confidence in the little horse played him patiently, while those who imagined that he would not be driven out as regularly bought the other end. A large amount went into the box went into the box.

At the conclusion of the second heat the judges announced that Wilkes would move. Quite a little breeze had sprung up on the back stretch, into the teeth of which the bay would have to travel. This fact was noticed and nearly every one united in agreeing that the feat attempted would fail of accomplishment. The little bay came down the stretch A nod from Van Ness, a shouted "Go!" from the judges and the noble horse was off. He went to the stables like a machine. Rounding the turn, he gathered speed, and, with his bay back flashing, he passed the quarter-mile post in 344 seconds. passed the quarter-mine post in 344 seconds. It was then that he began to increase his speed. He did not miss a step. He did not make a skip. But faster and faster did he go, with that regular, methodical stride of his, which seemed to lift him over the ground as though he were possessed of wings. The weaker worked 1071 et the wings. The watches marked 1:071 at the half-mile post.

"He won't beat it!" was the cry that went up from every hand.

"He can't beat 2:18!" shouted others.

"A thousand to a hundred he don't do it!" shouted another individual, and yet no one would take the odds. Still on went Harry, never swerving, never shirking the work before him. Into the upper turn he swept, increasing his gait at every stride.

"He will beat it!" "He will!" "He will!" frantically yelled those who had pinned their faith on the horse, as he turned into the straight and came for the wire.

THE MAGIC FIGURES. Only once did Van Ness have to touch Harry with a whip, and that was as he neared the drawgate. The horse seemed to realize what was wanted of him, and h fairly skimmed over the ground. As he neared the wire a hundred hands feverneared the wire a hundred hands feverishly grasped as many watches. Nearer and nearer he drew. Then, in a flash, he crossed the line. A silence of a second, and then a grand shout went up, which increased into a perfect tumult of hurrahing as the time-keepers hung out the magic figures 2:13½, and every one knew that the great feat had been accomplished. Men threw their hats into the air. Ladies waved their snowy handkerchiefs.

Liver Complaint

Is more surely and speedily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, than by any other remedy. I was a great sufferer from liver troubles, and never found anything that gave me permanent relief until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, about two years ago. A few bottles of this medicine produced a radical cure. - Wm. E. Baker, 155 W. Brookline st., Boston, Mass.

A Remarkable Cure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured me of as bad a case of Abscess of the Liver as the human being could be afflicted with and live. I was confined to the house for two years, and, for the last three months of years, and, for the last three months of that time, was unable to leave my bed. Four physicians treated me without giving relief, and, in fact, nothing helped me, until I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using a quarter of a bottle of this medicine I began to feel better, and every additional dose seemed to bring new health and strength. I used three bottles, and am now able to aftend to my business. and am now able to attend to my business.

I walk to town—one mile distant—and return, without difficulty. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has accomplished all this for me.

Amendment Number Three.

A Resolution to propose an amendment to Section eight, of Article XI., of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to the feaming of a charter for cities of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and for cities of over ten thousand and less than one hur dred thousand inhabitants.

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that Section eight, of Article XI., of the Constitution of said State, be amended so as to read as follows:

tution of said State, be amended so as to read as tollows:

Section 8. Any city containing a population of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a Board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of such city, at any general or special election, whose duty it shall be, within ninety days after such election, to prepare and propose a charter for such city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such Board, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy thereof to the Mayor, or other chief executive officer of such city, and the other to the Recorder of Deeds of the county. Such proposed charter shall then be published in two daily papers of general circulation in such city, for at least twenty days; and within not less than thirty days after such publication it shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such city, at a general or special election, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereat shall ratify the same, it shall thereafter be submitted to the Legislature for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment; and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each House, it shall become the charter of such city, or if such city and county, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, and all amendments thereof, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. A copy of such charter, certified by the Mayor, or chief executive officer, and authenticated by the seal of such city, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State the other after heiny recorded in the ments to the Constitution of the To propose to the people of the State an amendment to the Constitution of the State, relative to the Judiciary Depart-California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, A. D. eighteen hun-dred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that Sections two and three, of Article VI. of the Constitution of said State, be amended so as to read as follows: sion of such chy, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State, the other, after being recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the county, among the archives of the city. All Courts shall take judicial notice thereof. The charter so ratified may be amended at intervals of not less than two years, by proposals therefor, submitted by legislative authority of the city to the qualified voters thereof, at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting thereat, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. The Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, in office at the time of the adoption of this amendment to the Constitution, are hereby continued in office as Justices of the supreme Court for the remainder of the terms to which they were respectively elected. The Justices shall elect one of their number to be Chief Justice, and he shall hold the office of Chief Justice of said Court for a term of two years. At the expiration of the term of the Chief Justice first elected, and every two years thereafter, the Justices shall elect a Chief Justice for a like term of two years. An entry of the election of such Chief Justice shall be made in the minutes of the Court and signed by four Justices. Whenever thereafter a vacancy occurs in the office of of the Court and signed by four Justices. Whenever thereafter a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief Justice, a like election shall be had to fill such office for the unexpired term. The Supreme Court may sit in departments or in bank, and shall always be open for the transaction of business. There shall be two departments, denominated respectively, Department One and Department Two. The Chief Justice shall assign three of the Justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time. The Justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange more than one hundred thousand inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a Board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of said city, at any general or special election, whose duty it shall be, within ninety days after such election, to prepare and propose a charter for such city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such Board, or a majority of them, and time to time. The Justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange with each other by agreement among them-selves or as ordered by the Chief Justice. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in relation to the Court in bank. The contained in relation to the Court in bank. The presence of three Justices shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of two Justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment. The Chief Justice shall apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the Court to be heard and decided by the Court in bank. The order may be made before or after judgment pronounced by a department; but where a cause has been allotted to one of the departments, and a judgment pronounced thereon, the order must be made within thirty days after such judgment, and concurred in by two Justices, and if so made it shall have the effect to vacate and set aside the judgment. Any four Justices may, either before or after judgment by a department, order a case to be heard in bank. If the order be not made within the time above limited, the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the envised of the region of the regi order be not made within the time above imited, the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the expiration of the period of thirty days a oresaid, unless approved by the Chief Justice, in writing, with the concurrence of two Justices. The Chief Justice may convene the Court in bank at any time, and shall be the presiding Justice of the Court when so convened. The concurrence of four Justices present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment in bank; but if four Justices, so present, do not concur in a judgment, then all the Justices qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument; but to render a judgment a concurrence of four Judges shall be necessary. In the determination of causes all decisions of the Court in bank, or in departments, shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The Chief Justice may sit in either department, and shall preside when so siting, but the Justices assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding Justice. In case of the absence of the Chief Justice from the place at which the Court is held, or his inability to act, the Associate Justices shall select one of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the nowers of the Chief Justice during clectors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State, and the other, after being recorded in said Recorder's office, shall be deposited in the archives of the city; and thereafter all Courts shall take judicial notice of said charter. The charter so ratified may be amended, at intervals of not less than two years, by proposals therefor, submitted by the legislative authority of the city to the qualified electors thereof, at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting thereat, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

> Now, therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution and an Act of the Legislature, of certain proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State, hereinafter named, and which have been proposed and adopted by the session beginning on January third, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, to the qualified vot ers of said State, at a special election to be called by the Governor for the twelfth day of April, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven," approved March 15, 1887, the said amendments are submitted to be separately voted upon, by ballot, by the qualified electors of the State, on at which the Court is held, or his inability to act, the Associate Justices shall select ore of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chief Justice during such absence or inability to act. The Supreme Court Commission, created by the Act of the Legislature approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, shall continue and be a Supreme Court Commission for four years after the adoption of this amendment. Said Commission may be continued for such time thereafter as may be fixed by an Act passed by a vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each House of the Legislature, and approved by the Governor. The members thereof and Secretary shall be appointed as in said Act provided; and such Commissioners shall be subject to removal in like manner as Judges of the Supreme Court. Said Commission shall have the same power to hear and determine causes possessed by a department of the Supreme Court; and causes may be assigned to the Commission in the same manner they are assigned to a department, and after decision they may be ordered heard in bank in the same way, and with like restrictions as if decided in department. "SARSFIELD" REMEDIES

SARSFIELD'S REMEDY for the Blood and Constipation! SARSFIELD'S REMEDY for Diphtheria and Pneumonia! SARSFIELD'S CHRONIC ULCER SALVE!

The people of the Interior will remember that a few years ago, J. P. SARSFIELD, of Sacramer to, became fortunately possessed of certain valuable remedial agents. With these he effected in Sacramento and Central California remarkable cures, and drew the approving attention of many physicians. So wide-spread became the fame of his remedies, that business men were convinced of their entire reliability, and of the truth of the marvels they accomplished. The result has been the formation of a Company to aid him in putting these needs for suffering humanity broadly upon sale. The Company has its Depot at No. 115 EDDY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, but the medicines can be had of all reputable

Mr. President and Gentlemen: We, your committee appointed to gather statistics relative to the supply of and demand for water for Placer county, beg leave to report as follows:

The ditch known as the North Fork ditch takes water from the American river nearly opposite Auburn; it is not awailable for irrigation to any considerable extent until it passes Rattlesnake Bar, when its usefulness gradually broadens until it reaches its piesent terminus, near or at the Birdsall orange ranch; if extended, could be made to cover the territory below Rocklin to the county line; present capacity tended, could be made a cover the territory low Rocklin to the county line; present capacity is about 700 inches, but it is capable of being enlarged to several thousand inches, the water supply being sufficient to furnish all probable demands for the territory lying under the line of ditch in our jurisdiction. Said ditch is sup-THE CALIFORNIA WATER COMPANY.

Its principal place of bu-iness is Georgetown, El Dorado county, Cal., Thomas Findlay, manager.

Fin statistics and maps furni-hed us by the manger of this company, together with personal examination and investigation, we find the water supply of their system is taken from the Little South Fork of the American river, Loon Lake and other water courses and lake reservoirs, showing a large catchment and a great volume of water.

volis, showing a large catchment and a great volume of water.

Present capacity of their main ditch is 1,600 inches. From the dam at Loon Lake to Georgetown it is about fifty miles in length. To convey this water into Placer county, at a point nearly opposite Auburn, would require a ditch of perhaps twenty-five miles additional.

Length of fluming from Loon Lake to Geo getown is estimated to be about five miles.

From personal observation the character of the country, from two miles above Georgetown to the crossing of the American river into Placer country, seemed to be favorable for ditching.

This company proposes to run from 1,000 to 3,000 inches of pure, clear water into Placer country by May 1, 1888, ready for use if they are offered proper inducements, and at reduced prices from present cost to us.

GIANT GAP WATER COMPANY. GIANT GAP WATER COMPANY.

GIANT GAP WATER COMPANY.

Principal place of business, Auburn: President, L. L. Givens, of Oakland; Secretary, D. W. Spear, of Auburn: Treasurer, Montgomery Howe, Oakland; Manager, R. L. Dunn, Auburn. Upon personal examination of the route and surveys exhibited by the engineer of the company, we find the proposed ditch to take its start one mile and three-quarters above Green valley and about 390 feet below the junction of the North Fork and South Fork of the North Fork of the American river. Said route continues along the north bank of the river, through Giant Gap, under Cape Horn, and to a point near Auburn, making a distance of fifty five miles. We found, on examination, the construction on the line of ditch for a distance of ten miles to be such as to enable us to travel over the route and the company to place a large force, if required, to prosecute the work to completion.

The survey shows four tunnels within this distance, as follows: Tunnel No. 1 is 70 feet long and nearly completed: tunnel No. 2 is 76 feet long, and finished: No. 3 is 100 feet long and No. 4 is 150 feet long, neither of which had been begun.

long, and finished: No. 3 is 150 feet long, neither of which had been begun.

There are four other proposed tunnels from this point to Auburn, the length of which had not yet been determined.

There will be required some 12½ miles of flume to be 6 feet wide and 4 feet deep, with space left to add an extra foot on top if necessary; size of ditch to be 8 feet on bottom, 10 feet on top, and 4 feet deep below the survey, material from ditch to be 8 feet on bottom, 10 feet on top, and 4 feet deep below the survey, material from ditch to be 4 frown on the outer bank to raise the ditch 18 inches above survey; grade to be, for first 1.122 miles, 8½ feet to the mile, for the succeeding 5 miles, 8 feet per mile; the balance of the line to be 7 or more feet per mile; capacity, as computed by the engineer of the company, will be 6,600 inches of water. He also states that there is a supply at the dam of not less than 6,000 inches up to September-1st. This is statement is corroborated by several persons who have had good opportunities to judge of the supply. Other persons, however, are of the opinion that the supply at that time will not reach this amount.

This company assures us that if properly encouraged they will complete their ditch sufficient to supply our wants by May 1, 1888, for the territory covered by their system.

A supplementary reports.

A SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT.

AUSURN, Cal., April 2, 1887.

Mr. President and Gentlemen: Since writing the foregoing report we have taken occasion to interview some of the will owners in the lower part of the county, and so far as we have been able to investigate, we find, with a reduction in price, and an assurance of a permanent surply. price, and an assurance of a permanent supply water will be more largely used in place of water will be more largely used in place of steam for power.

There are two mines at Loomis and Rocklin that are reported each to require eighty inches of water daily throughout the entire year. There are other mines in the same vicinity that would use a considerable quantity if they can be supplied with certainty.

From lack of time we have been unable to gather detailed information on this subject as we would like, but the large mining interests in Ophir and vicinity would seem to require a still larger supply if water was wholly used for power instead of steam, and throughout the county the demand in this direction will be at once increased.

In conclusion, we would say, that coupling the wants for irrigation together wife that for water power, leads us to repeat with emphasis our recommendation to encourage in every honorable way the extending through our county of the country of t rel water supply, to meet the demands enterprise. Very respectfully submittee P. W. Butler, W. B. Hayford, INTERSTATE COMMERCE. Letter from General Manager A, N. Towne Concerning the New Law. The following letter from General Manager A. N. Towne, of the Southern Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, that he retains the Czar's fullest confidence.

Dear Sir: I regret that I was so much occupied yesterday afternoon that I was not able to give you answers to some of your questions relative to the workings of the interstate law, and in fulfilling my promise to write you on the subject. I do so merely to throw out some hints regarding a subject I know so little about.

I am not unmindful of the demoralized condition of things at the present time pertaining to the carriers and their patrons, but the press and people must be patient and wait. Order cannot be brought out of chaos in a moment. Such an enormous amount of work as is necessary to change the tariffs from what they were to those which must prevail under the new law requires time. We hear complaints of an advance of rates on freight to high figures to and from the Pacific slope. This is not true in the common acceptance of the term. The only rates to go into effect under the law are substantially a combination of various local rates over connecting lines, with a considerable percentage of reduction on long hauls. This tarift is all right, and substantially what it has been in the past: and the public and the roads will be all right if the latter can be assured of safety in establishing a competitive tariff, to enable the people here to ship at low rates, as heretofore, until the much-vexed question of the long-and-short-haul provisions is disposed of by the Commissioners.

Let any one read some of the sections of this readers:

sions are entertained by many relative to the results to come out of this new law, largely on account of the vague and ambiguous wording of some of its sections. For instance, take the term "substantially similar circumstances and conditions;" this must be given the most liberal construction by the Commissioners or the Courts.

methods can be opened up again under a liberal construction of the law. In fact, the practical laws governing the movement of traffic for the past, which has come up with the growth and settlement of the country, must be the basis for the movement of commerce in the future, and the sooner this is settled the better it will be for the public and the roads as well.

The carriers are diligently at work, and will be ready to present to the Commissioners in good time an appeal for recognition of the principle that wa'er competition must be met by the roads, and the shippers, backed by the press of this coast, should at once make themselves clearly understood in their demands for an honest, reasonable and intelligent interpretation of this much-tangled question relating to long and short hauls. There was much discussion in Congress over this ambiguous section of the law, yet for some reason a clear definition was not arrived at, or there would likely have been a change in the wording, making it so clear that any one with fair reasoning capacity would have understood it. One is almost persuaded that the obscure language was chosen for two purposes: First, to convince the people of the interior that they were to be favored by a reduction of rates based on and brought down to the level of the through competitive rates, and thereby attempting to satisfy an unreasonable clamor; and, second, to as ure at the same time those favored by the laws of nature and by their geographical position that they, too, would be protected by their dissimilarly situated condition. And since this was left undecided, who, except the Commissioners or the Courts, was to determine it and what degree of elasticity in their geographical position that they, too, would be protected by their dissimilarly situated condition. And since this was left undecided, who, except the Commissioners or the Courts, was to determine it and what degree of elasticity in the interpretation of it would be necessary to accomplish both, and satisty the people of the interior of this vast country, and those as well on the great water ways?

The carriers have no right to place a less favorably-situated shipper on an equality with one more favorably situated; neither has Congress this right; and it is not a good, square business proposition when applied to tranportation. The people of the Lost favored localities, namely, those on the coast and along the great water ways of the interior, make their own best rates with the carriers by water, and the railroads must accept this rate as their own for such competitive traffic, or they cannot expect to take it; therefore there is no reason nor justice in the idea that non-competitive places should be favorably considered in the matter of rates as those places where competition exists. Yet this is what the shipper of the country expected. The traffic between the two seaboards for the last few years has been largely diverted from the occan to the railroad by offering the merchant low rates and rapid transit. This is what the shippers here and the carriers want now under the provisions of the new law, and both look for a decision accordingly, from the Commissioners or the Courts; until that is reached there will come much harm and embarrassment. But we here will not be alone in our trouble; the whole country, compelled so suddenly to adapt itself to impractical methods for regulation, cannot avoid the evils which are sure to follow; and the sooner the Commissioners get together and grant the exemption necessary to relieve the earliers, the better it will be for all.

It is not true, as charged by some, that the railroads are doing all in their power to make the law odious; on the contrary, the roads are doing which confusion and Gemoralization must come yet the principal thing necessary for us ove here is a satisfactory disposition of the question above particularly referred to. Youse truly.

J. M. Lightfoot attended a ball at Santa Monica Wednesday night. Early Thursday morning he was found lying on the beach badly hurt. There was a large gash cut in his throat. It is supposed he fell down the cliff, though the fact that $40 is missing points to robbery. Upon recovering consciousness he said that all he remembered was suddenly losing consciousness and falling.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathefreely, sieep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human en-smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted, But those who have tried many remedies and physicans despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most look and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

ASHBURNHAM, MASS., Jan. 15, 1886.

I have been very sick over two years. They all gave me up as past cure. I tried the most skillful physicians, but they did not reach the worse part. The lungs and heart would fill up every night and distress me, and my throat was very bad. I told my children I should never die in peace till I had tried Hop Bitvers. When I had taken two bottlesthey helped me very much indeed. When I had taken two more bottles I was well. There was a lot of sick folks here who have seen how they cured me, and they used them and were cured and feel as thankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made. Yours truly, Miss Julia G. Cushing. ASHBURNHAM, MASS., Jan. 15, 1886
